

Reflections 2021-2022
Literature - Poem

So you want to change the world? But you don't know what to do? Well, there are different ways.

If you want to do something big, well, there are lots of choices.

You could become famous.

Or fight for good.

Lots of things.

But there are other things. Little things.

Helping someone in need.

Donating.

Cleaning up your neighborhood.

Wearing a mask.

But there is more. Even smaller things.

Lending something.

Opening a door for someone.

Helping with someone's bags.

But these all change the world. Got any ideas now?
